

NORTHERN IRELAND AMBULANCE SERVICE EQUALITY SCREENING REPORT 1st JULY – 30th SEPTEMBER 2015

Introduction

Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 requires the Northern Ireland Ambulance Service Health and Social Care Trust, when carrying out its functions in relation to Northern Ireland, to have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity between nine categories of persons, namely:

- persons of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status or sexual orientation;
- men and women generally;
- persons with a disability and persons without; and
- persons with dependants and persons without.

Without prejudice to these obligations, the Trust must also have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group.

The Trust's Equality Scheme outlines how we propose to fulfil our statutory duties under Section 75. Within the Scheme, the Trust gave a commitment to apply the screening methodology below to all new and revised policies and where necessary and appropriate to subject new policies to further equality impact assessment:

- What is the likely impact of equality of opportunity for those affected by the policy/proposal, for each of the Section 75 equality categories? (minor/major/none)
- Are there opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity for people within Section 75 equality categories?
- To what extent is the policy/proposal likely to impact on good relations between people of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group? (minor/major/none)
- Are there opportunities to better promote good relations between people of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group?

In keeping with the commitments in our Equality Scheme, the Trust has applied the above screening criteria to new policies and proposals. The screening process is used to identify which policies are likely to have a significant/major impact on or consequence for people including those in any of the nine equality groups.

If it is decided that a policy/proposal is likely to have a significant/major impact in relation to equality, it is then necessary to carry out a more detailed exercise called an Equality Impact Assessment (EQIA).

This screening report outlines the screening outcomes between 1 July and 30 September 2015.

Communication and Engagement

In order to carry out our functions there is a need to continue to effectively engage and work collaboratively with a wide range of stakeholders including Trust staff, Trade Unions, service users, carers, commissioners, primary care, public representatives and independent providers.

The Trust is committed to promoting Personal and Public Involvement in all its activities. The development of new policies and proposals will be supported by effective engagement processes to ensure that staff, service users and all interested parties are fully involved. Planning for and delivering safe, clinically effective and cost effective services requires close collaboration at many levels.
