FOI QUESTION(S)	ANSWER(S)
Please provide the percentage of emergency calls within each division that were categorised as relating to mental health, with annual figures for the past five years.	Please see the attached dataset.
Additionally, given that certain specialised practitioners within the NHS are eligible to retire at a younger age, and considering the expanding scope of practice for frontline NIAS practitioners, is the retirement age for these practitioners currently under review? If not, could you please explain the rationale for this position?	No. Staff do have the option of availing of other alternatives and can access/apply for partial retirement schemes.

I hope the above fully assists you.
